Day 1.

Europe – Buenos Aires:

Departure in an international night flight. Night on board.

Day 2.

Buenos Aires – Iguazú Falls:

Arrival at Ezeiza International Airport. Our staff will be waiting there, to provide assistance in terminal change and to deliver the necessary documents for the trip. Next, you will board the Aerolineas Argentinas flight and arrive at Puerto Iguazú. Reception and private transfer service to the Hotel.

Day 3.

Iguazú Falls:

Private trip to the Argentinian side of the Iguazú Falls. The tour starts at the hotel you are staying in. After picking you up at that location, you will be taken to the entrance to the Iguazú National Park. The train called "Rainforest Train" departs from the Visitor's Center, an ecological train that goes all along the Misiones rainforest towards the Garganta del Diablo (Devil's Throat), the starting point of a walkway to one of the most striking landscapes in Argentina, next to the jump after which the Union Jump was named, a place impossible to describe in words for its beauty and energy that makes everyone feel thrilled. A place not to be missed! The trip continues in the next stop: the Iguazu Falls. Here, you have two options: you can either go on the Upper Circuit, which has a 500-meter distance, or the Lower Circuit, a number of walkways that allow appreciating such a natural wonder from another angle.

To finish this unforgettable trip, we highly recommend to hire "The Great Adventure: Iguazu Falls Baptism", which is an optional tour (€ 60): a combination of a nautical adventure riding on Zodiac boats, in which you will go on a six-kilometers ride down the Lower Iguazú River going through rapids to finish your round in the Devil's Throat Canyon, and a ride on an uncovered double-traction vehicle through the rainforest, where you will have the chance to fully appreciate the flora and, if you are lucky, the native fauna. 1-day trip. People going on this trip should take insect repellent, trainers and comfortable clothes.

Iguazú:

Private trip to the Brazilian side of the Iguazú Falls and the Bird Park. Departure from the hotel to the Foz do Iguazú National Park. In this visitor area, you will find a single 950-meter long walkway, located on the Iguazú River Gully Falls, where you will witness a really impressive view of the Jumps. The tour reaches its climax when you get to the Devil's Throat, where the sound of the falling water profoundly shakes visitors. Entrance fee is not included, charged 15 USD per person.

Iguazú - Salta:

In the morning you might take the flight to Salta. You will arrive in Salta city, and take a private transfer to the chosen hotel. In the afternoon, through an attractive private City Tour you will learn about Salta's history and why it has earned the name "La Linda" (The beautiful). Accommodation.

Day 6.

Salta - Cafayate:

The following day you continue your trip along a very narrow and picturesque road that will take you through a little town called "El Carril", and across the extraordinary "Quebrada de Escoipe" (Escoipe Gorge), a narrow valley of a very deep green, surrounded by mountains, until you end up at the wonderful "Cuesta del Obispo" (Bishop's Hill). A road with many curves which allow you to enjoy the panoramic views of the "Valle Encantado" (Enchanted Valley). The highest point is "Piedra del Molino" (Mill's Stone), there you will be 3348 meters above the sea. Then, you will go through the "Recta de Tin-tin" (Tin-Tin Road), the old Inca's road, there you will drive across Los Cardones National Park, where the main vegetable specie gives the Park its name and it has some grown Cactus of 3 meters high. While you arrive Cachi, you will have an incredible view of Cachi and Payogasta's snowy summit. After lunch, you continue by Route 40 to Cafayate, going by Molinos and San Carlos. Arrival to Cafayate and accommodation.

Cafayate - Salta:

Guided Visit, wine tasting and lunch in a Winery. The way back to Salta takes us through the marvelous scenery of the Conchas River with its fascinating colorful rock formations: the sand dunes, the amphitheater, the toad, the bishop, the devil's throat, the castles, and others. Return to Salta. Accommodation.

Day 8.

Salta - Purmamarca:

After breakfast, the Safari to the highs will (in overland semi-private) lead you to one of the most impressive works of engineering, the geography of the area and the amazing colours and hills. The "Road to the Highs" follows the famous railway track of the "Train to the Clouds" through the "Quebrada del Toro" (Bull's Gorge) up to "San Antonio de los Cobres". On our way, we will visit historic ruins, scattered houses, small villages and amazing landscapes. We will continue through the Puna, along route 40, up to "Salinas Grandes" (Salt Lakes) of Jujuy. Finally, later in the afternoon we will arrive to our comfortable hotel in Purmamarca, located at the base of Jujuy's famed 7-colored mountain. Accommodation.

Purmamarca - Salta:

Breakfast. The attractions of the "Safari to the highs" on the first day are matched with three other spectacular points of interest on the second day: Tilcara's amazing indigenous ruins, the "Quebrada de Humahuaca" (Humahuaca Gorge) and the picturesque village with the same name. Return to Salta. Accommodation.

Day 11.

El Calafate:

Private trip to the Perito Moreno Glacier walkways, "Nautical Safari" navigation included. We pick you up at the hotel, and after driving for 80km we will arrive at the Parque Nacional Los Glaciares, declared "World Heritage" by the UNESCO, since a vast area of continental ice field is preserved. The glaciers Moreno, Onelli, Agassi and Upsala are fed by this ice field. The Perito Moreno, being the most breathtaking glacier, flows over the Lago Argentino and adopts a wide spectrum of colors from white to turquoise. The terminus of the Perito Moreno Glacier is 5 Km wide, with an average height of 70 m above the lake level. We start our ramble at the Viewpoint, coming down through the walkways opposite to the glacier. The vastness of the landscape can be observed and the sound of the constant ruptures. An amazing spectacle that cannot be missed! We will continue the trip taking the "NAUTICAL SAFARI", navigating though the Brazo Rico (southern arm) of the Lago Argentino. The trip lasts approximately one hour and gives tourists the possibility to "live" the glacier from a closest sight. Once we are just in front of the terminus, the ship will stop for some minutes to appreciate its beauty and vastness. Duration: full-day trip.

Day 12.

El Calafate:

Navigation (VIP Entrance) through the Lago Argentino where we will find the Upsala glacier, thanks to the tour "Ríos de Hielo Express". We will start really early in the morning, after leaving the hotel we will drive to Puerto Banderas, where the navigation starts, once on board we will cross the Brazo Norte (northern arm) of the Lago Argentino up to the Upsala Channel, throughout the trip we will go by astonishing icebergs, ending the trip with a sight of a wonderful ice wall, where we will reach a breathtaking viewpoint of Glaciar Upsala. Then, we will navigate through the Spegazzini Channel, at which point we will find the Seco glacier, which is the tallest within the national park. We will start our return trip to the port and later on to the hotel located in the city El Calafate. Duration: half-day trip.

Day 13.

El Calafate – Buenos Aires:

Day 14.

Buenos Aires:

Private City Tour during the day, including the most characteristic and crowded touristic points in Buenos Aires, where you will immerse in our history, enjoying the architectural heritage from our past generations, such as: Plaza de Mayo, the typical town of La Boca, former natural port of the City, where an important and continually-growing Italian community, mainly GENOVES, started to migrate and establish at the end of the 19th century; "Caminito", a street declared museum, with its colorful houses; a walk through San Telmo streets, the oldest area in the city and, without even noticing, get to Puerto Madero, the most recently-built neighborhood where you will find lots of restaurant of international cuisine. Following our tour, we get to Recoleta, the most prestigious neighborhood during the last decades, characterized by its old buildings that represent a hint of European architecture of the last century and for its intense lifestyle, defined both by the people residing in the area and the tourists strolling along the glamorous streets. In Recoleta, you have the option of visiting the famous cemetery of great architectural value. The tour finishes in the streets of Palermo, the largest area town, highly appreciated for its woods, being the largest greenbelt in the city of Buenos Aires.

Day 15.

Buenos Aires:

Day off. We recommend a half-day trip to Tigre's delta, where you can discover Buenos Aires' landscapes from the Rio de la Plata. Starting from the hotel you will go to San Isidro, an important district of great historical and architectural value. Once in the delta you will pick a boat, which will help you discover the islands life. Throughout the trip you will also found nautical clubs, on the river bank of the Río Luján, astonishing houses and mansions located on the ravine and a magnificent sight of Del Plata estuary, San Isidro's Cathedral, the Puerto de Olivos, the "Monumental" (River Plate stadium) and the University City of Buenos Aires. At night, the finishing touch will be a Dinner Tango Show, which is the best option for experiencing TANGO. The icing of the cake will be the orchestra led by renowned conductors and musicians, professional dancers and praiseworthy singers who live up to Buenos Aires reputation as capital city of Tango. Dinner includes appetizer, starters, main course, dessert and drinks.
